25X1X

1. On 26 October 1953, as well as between 8 p.m. and midnight on 27 and 28 October, reports of artillery pieces were heard from the Jueterbog troop training grounds. Between 8:30 p.m. on 29 October and 2 a.m. on 30 October, reports of rocket launchers and heavy artillery pieces were heard from the training area.¹

2. On 27 October, 2 trains occupied by troops were seen at the Jueterbog railroad station, with the engines headed toward Altes Lager or Halle. Source determined that trained personnel from the hospital was assembled in Altes Lager. On 28 October, another shipment of trained personnel was observed at the Jueterbog railroad station.²

3. On 29 October, the Fuchsberg Kaserne was fully lighted after night fall. On 30 October, 3 to 10 T-34 tanks were seen behind the hospital, proceeding toward the woods. On 31 October, 25 troops carrying entrenching tools and 5 barbed wire reels left the installation toward the slaughter house.³

4. On 7 November, the former Norddeutsche Maschinonfabrik, Luckenwalde, was occupied by about 300 to 500 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets. About 60 troops engaged in fatigue duties in the barracks area.

5. On 7 November, Stalag I was occupied by about 400 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets, including some with artillery insignia. On 2 November, an undetermined number of troops cleaned 3 rocket launchers and, on 2 and 4 November, about 120 troops drilled in the barracks area. On 30 October, 3 trucks, each occupied by about 40 troops with baggage, left the quarantining area for the Forst Zinna railroad station.⁴

6. On 7 November, Stalag II was occupied by about 400 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets, including some with artillery insignia. On 30 October, 2 trucks, each occupied by about 40 troops with baggage, left the installation for the Forst Zinna railroad station. Truck was identified. At about 11:30 a.m. on 2 November, 3 new radio trucks were seen entering the camp.
